

Getting in Shape

We stayed in Melbourne for a few weeks. After travelling for around eight months, we were glad to stay in the same place for more than one night.

You have any plans for tonight? I am going to the university hockey practice again. Should we meet up somewhere?

I guess I will go for a run. I have to get into shape. Too much of the good stuff – if you know what I mean.

With all due respect – and you know I mean it.

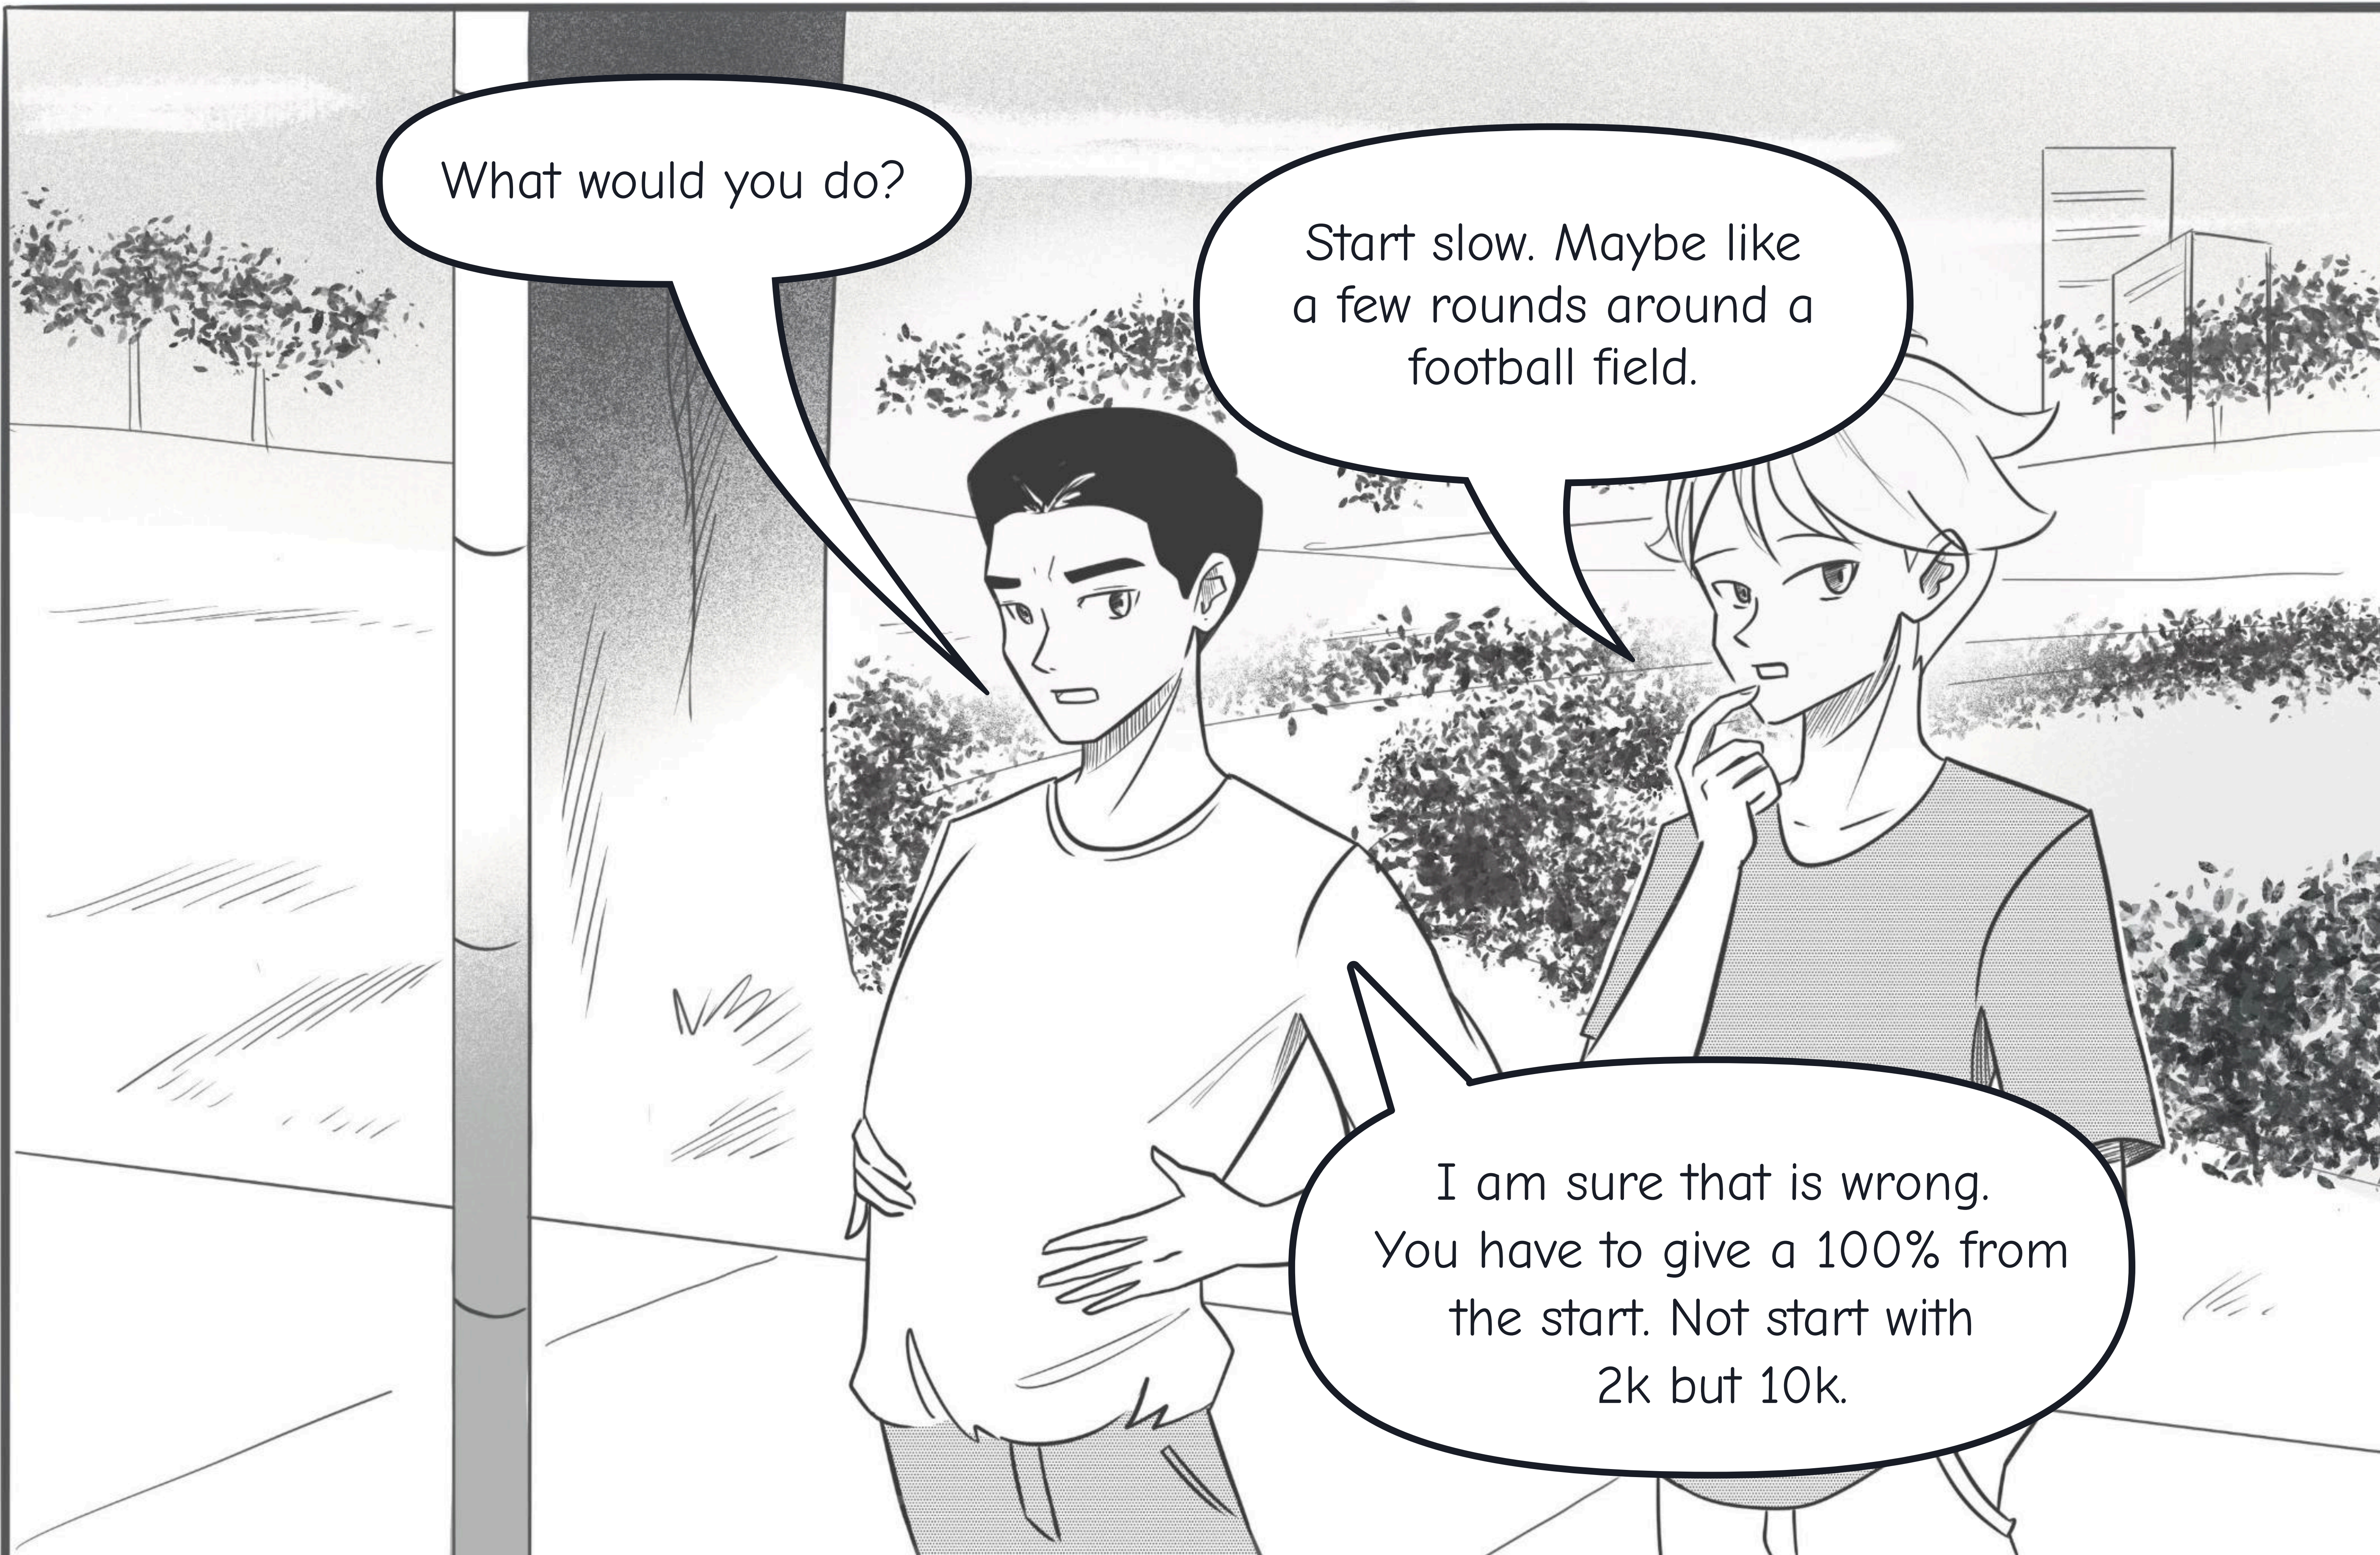

What?

Again, with all due respect, you're the worst runner I have seen in my life.

Well, I would say I run like you swim.

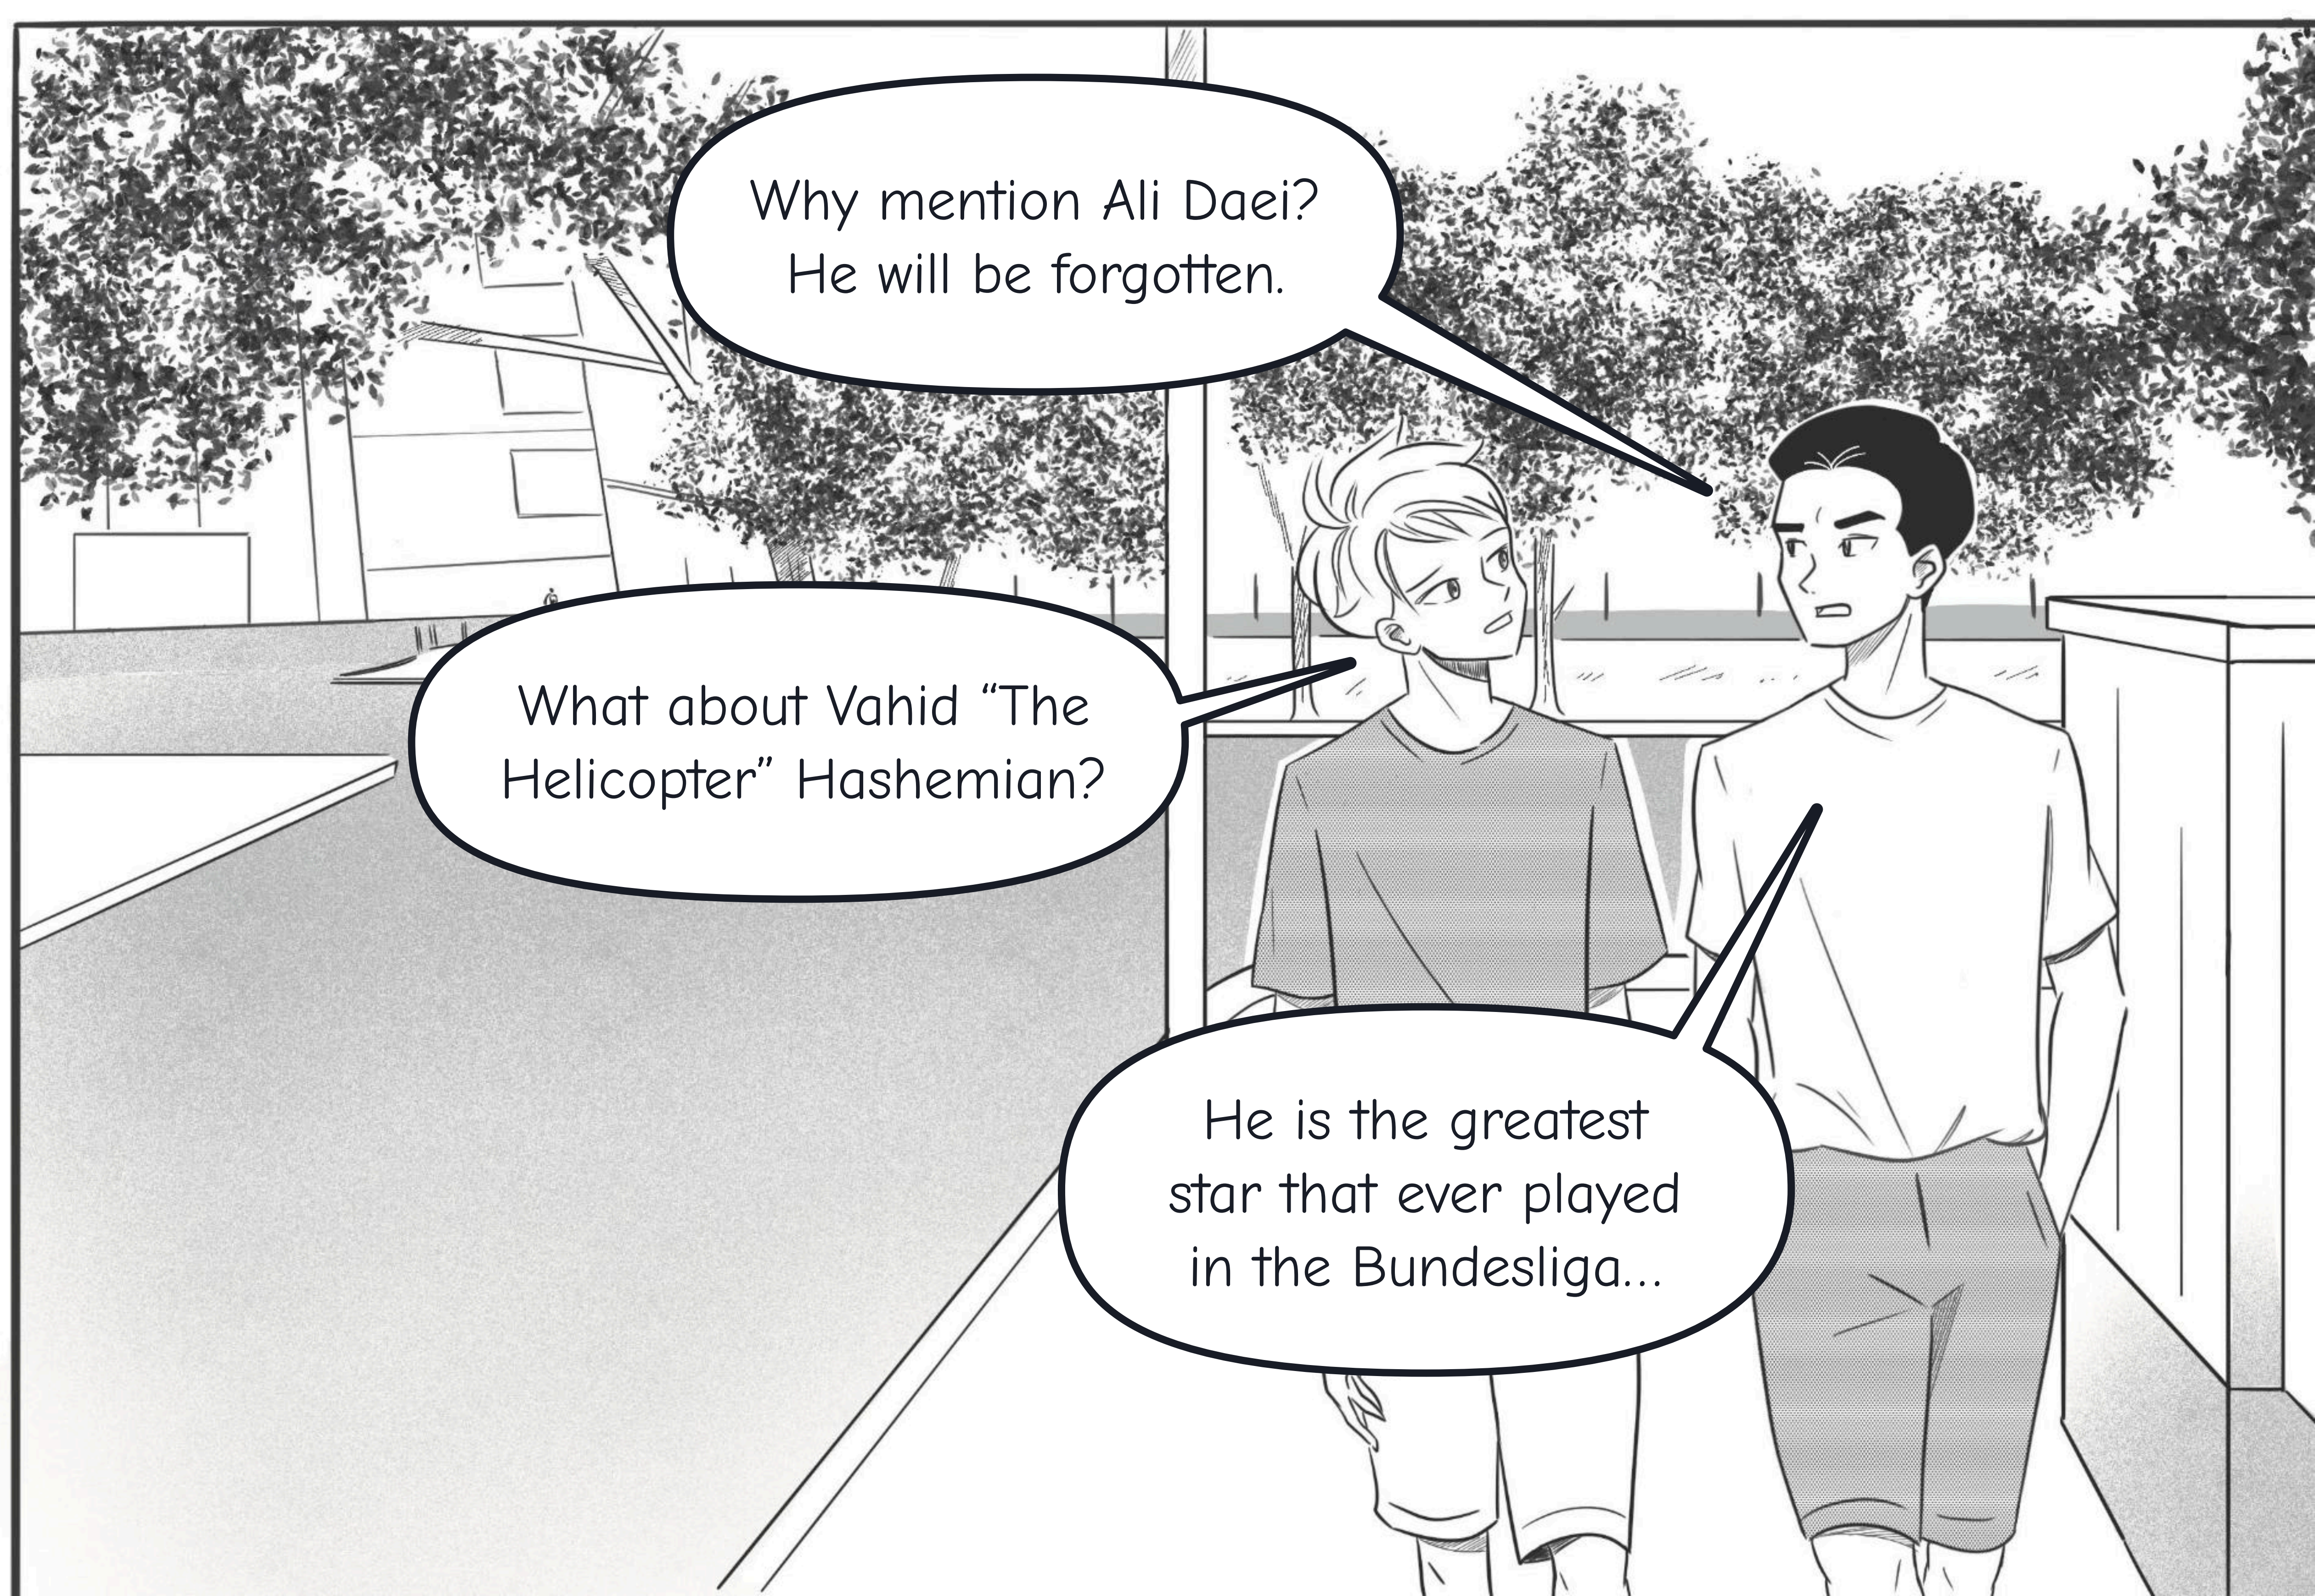

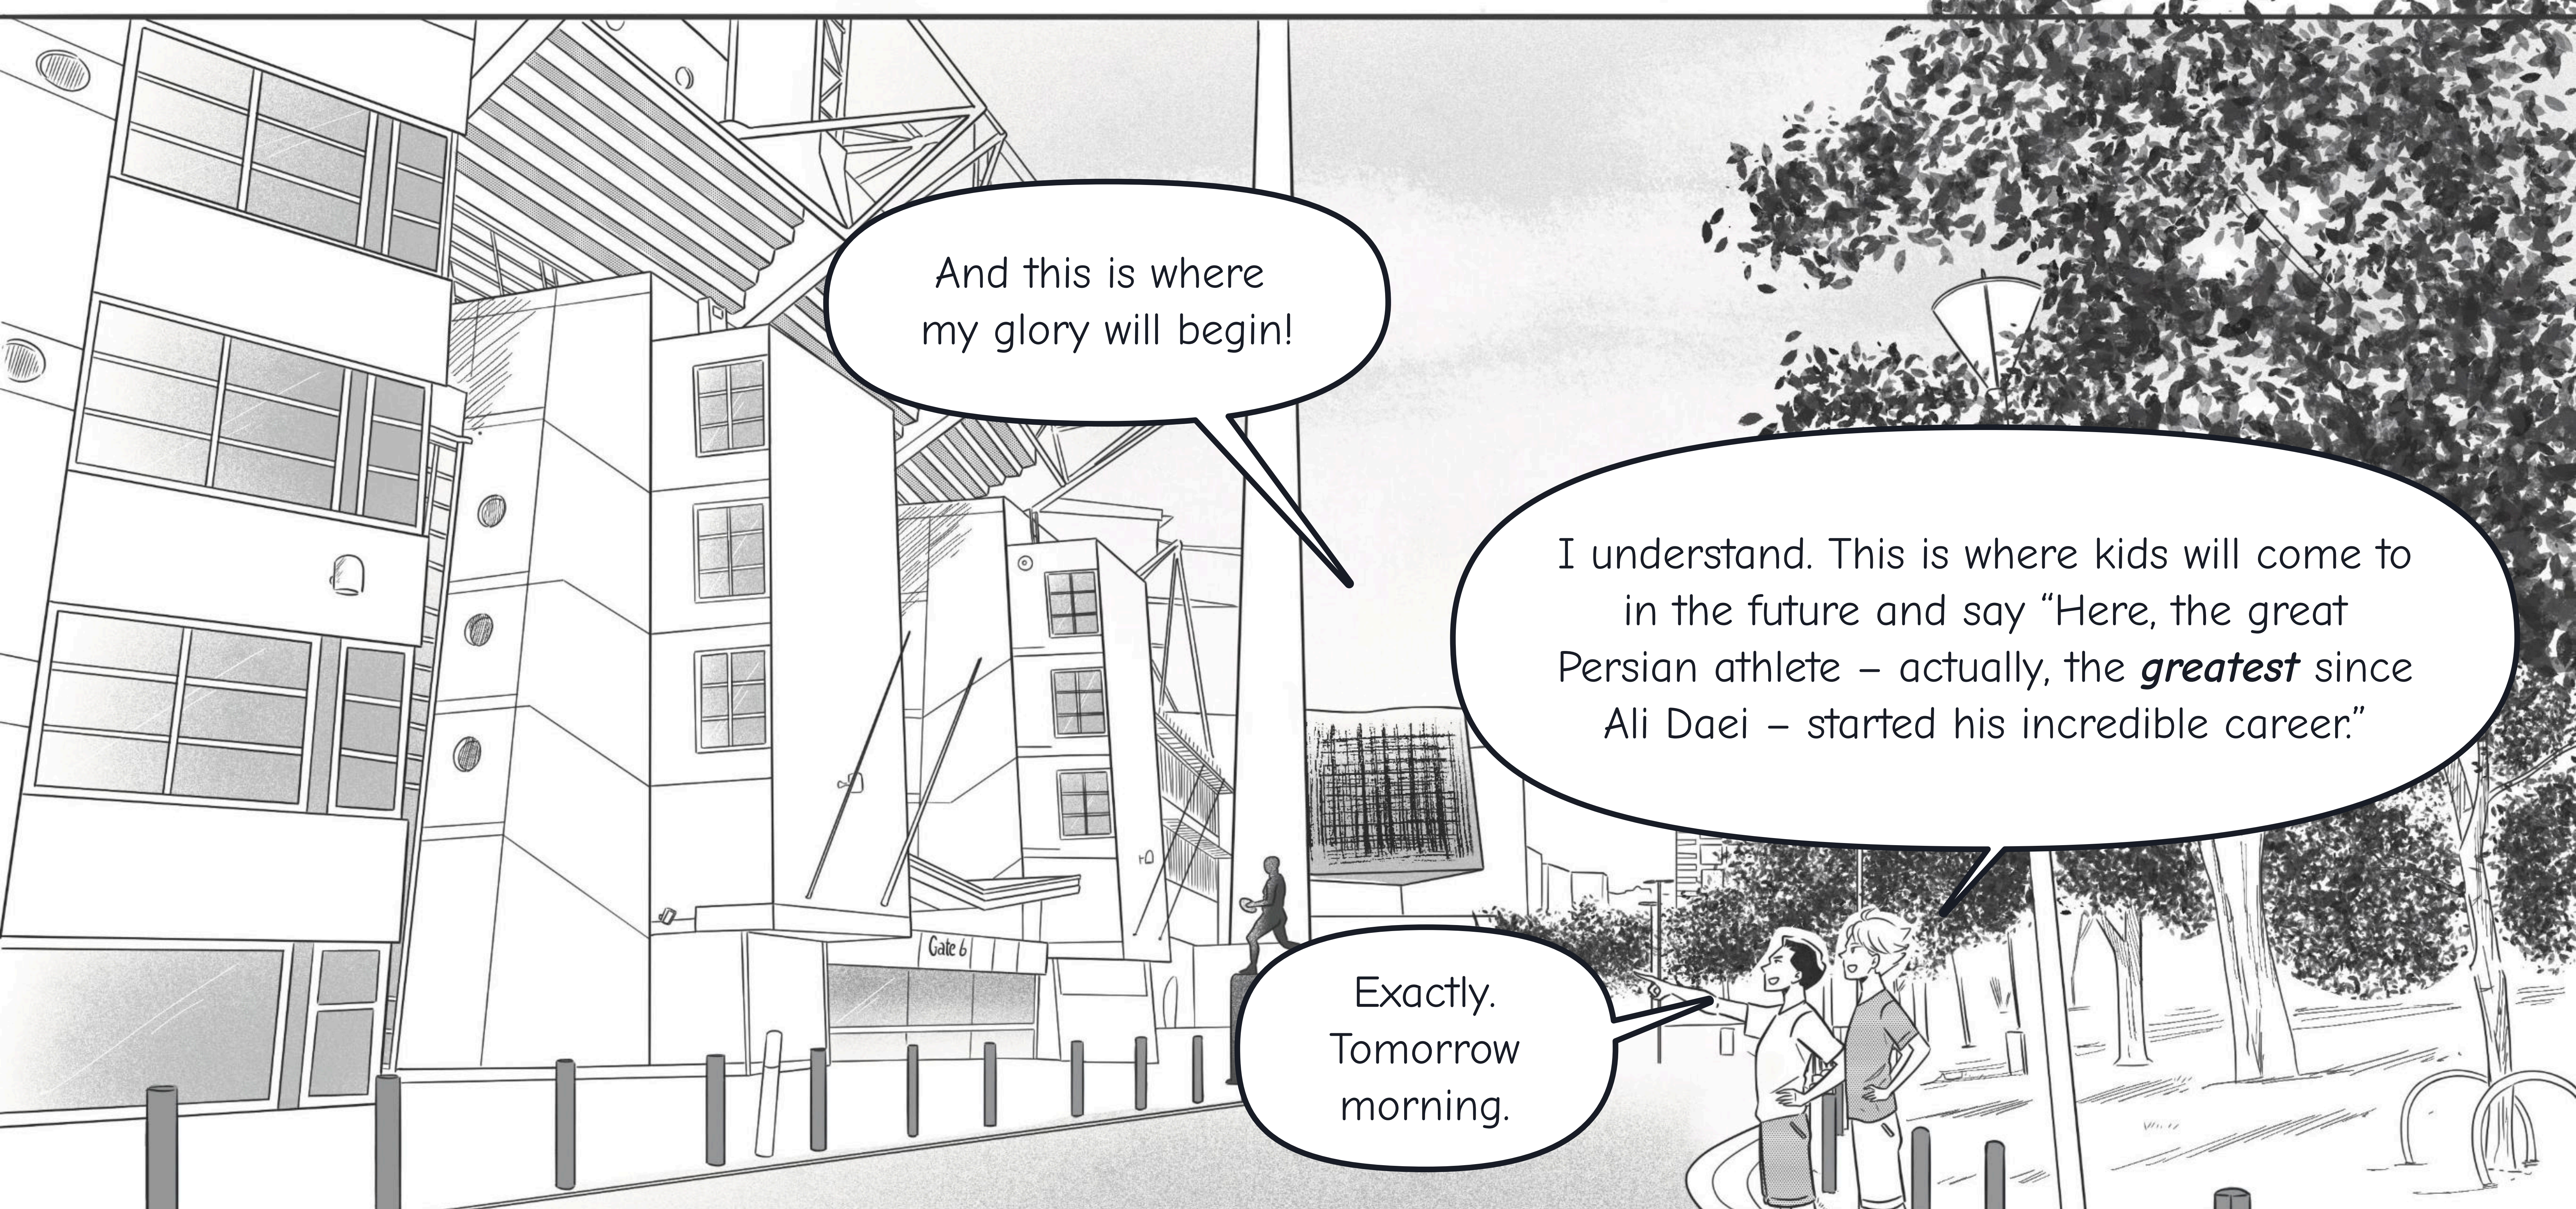

Fair enough. So what is your plan? Run for like 5 minutes and relax for a few hours?

What would you do?

Start slow. Maybe like a few rounds around a football field.

I am sure that is wrong. You have to give a 100% from the start. Not start with 2k but 10k.

The next day, the training began. Keyhan was in a good mood.

Okay, don't go soft on me.
Remember the goal is to reach 10k in the morning and 10k in the evening as soon as possible.

Let's run one round together. I want to see how long it is.

Just to get warmed up. I guess running around is maybe like 1k...

Huff
So ten times around the stadium?

7:34

That wasn't too bad.
Look, 7 minutes.

Huff-Puff
Piece of cake.

So in total nine more rounds for you, right? Let's try with another one but you try to finish in under 6 minutes?

7:41

7:49

7:50

You made it!

That - must - 've been - a - record.

Well, you finished another round.

Rocky music is playing in the background.

Come on, next generation Ali Daei! Don't give up now. Keep on fighting. Try a decent round but under, let's say, 8 minutes.

Huff
You're right!

You got it, Rock!
Do it for Adrian.

7:55

8:05

No Keyhan in sight.

You're almost finished!

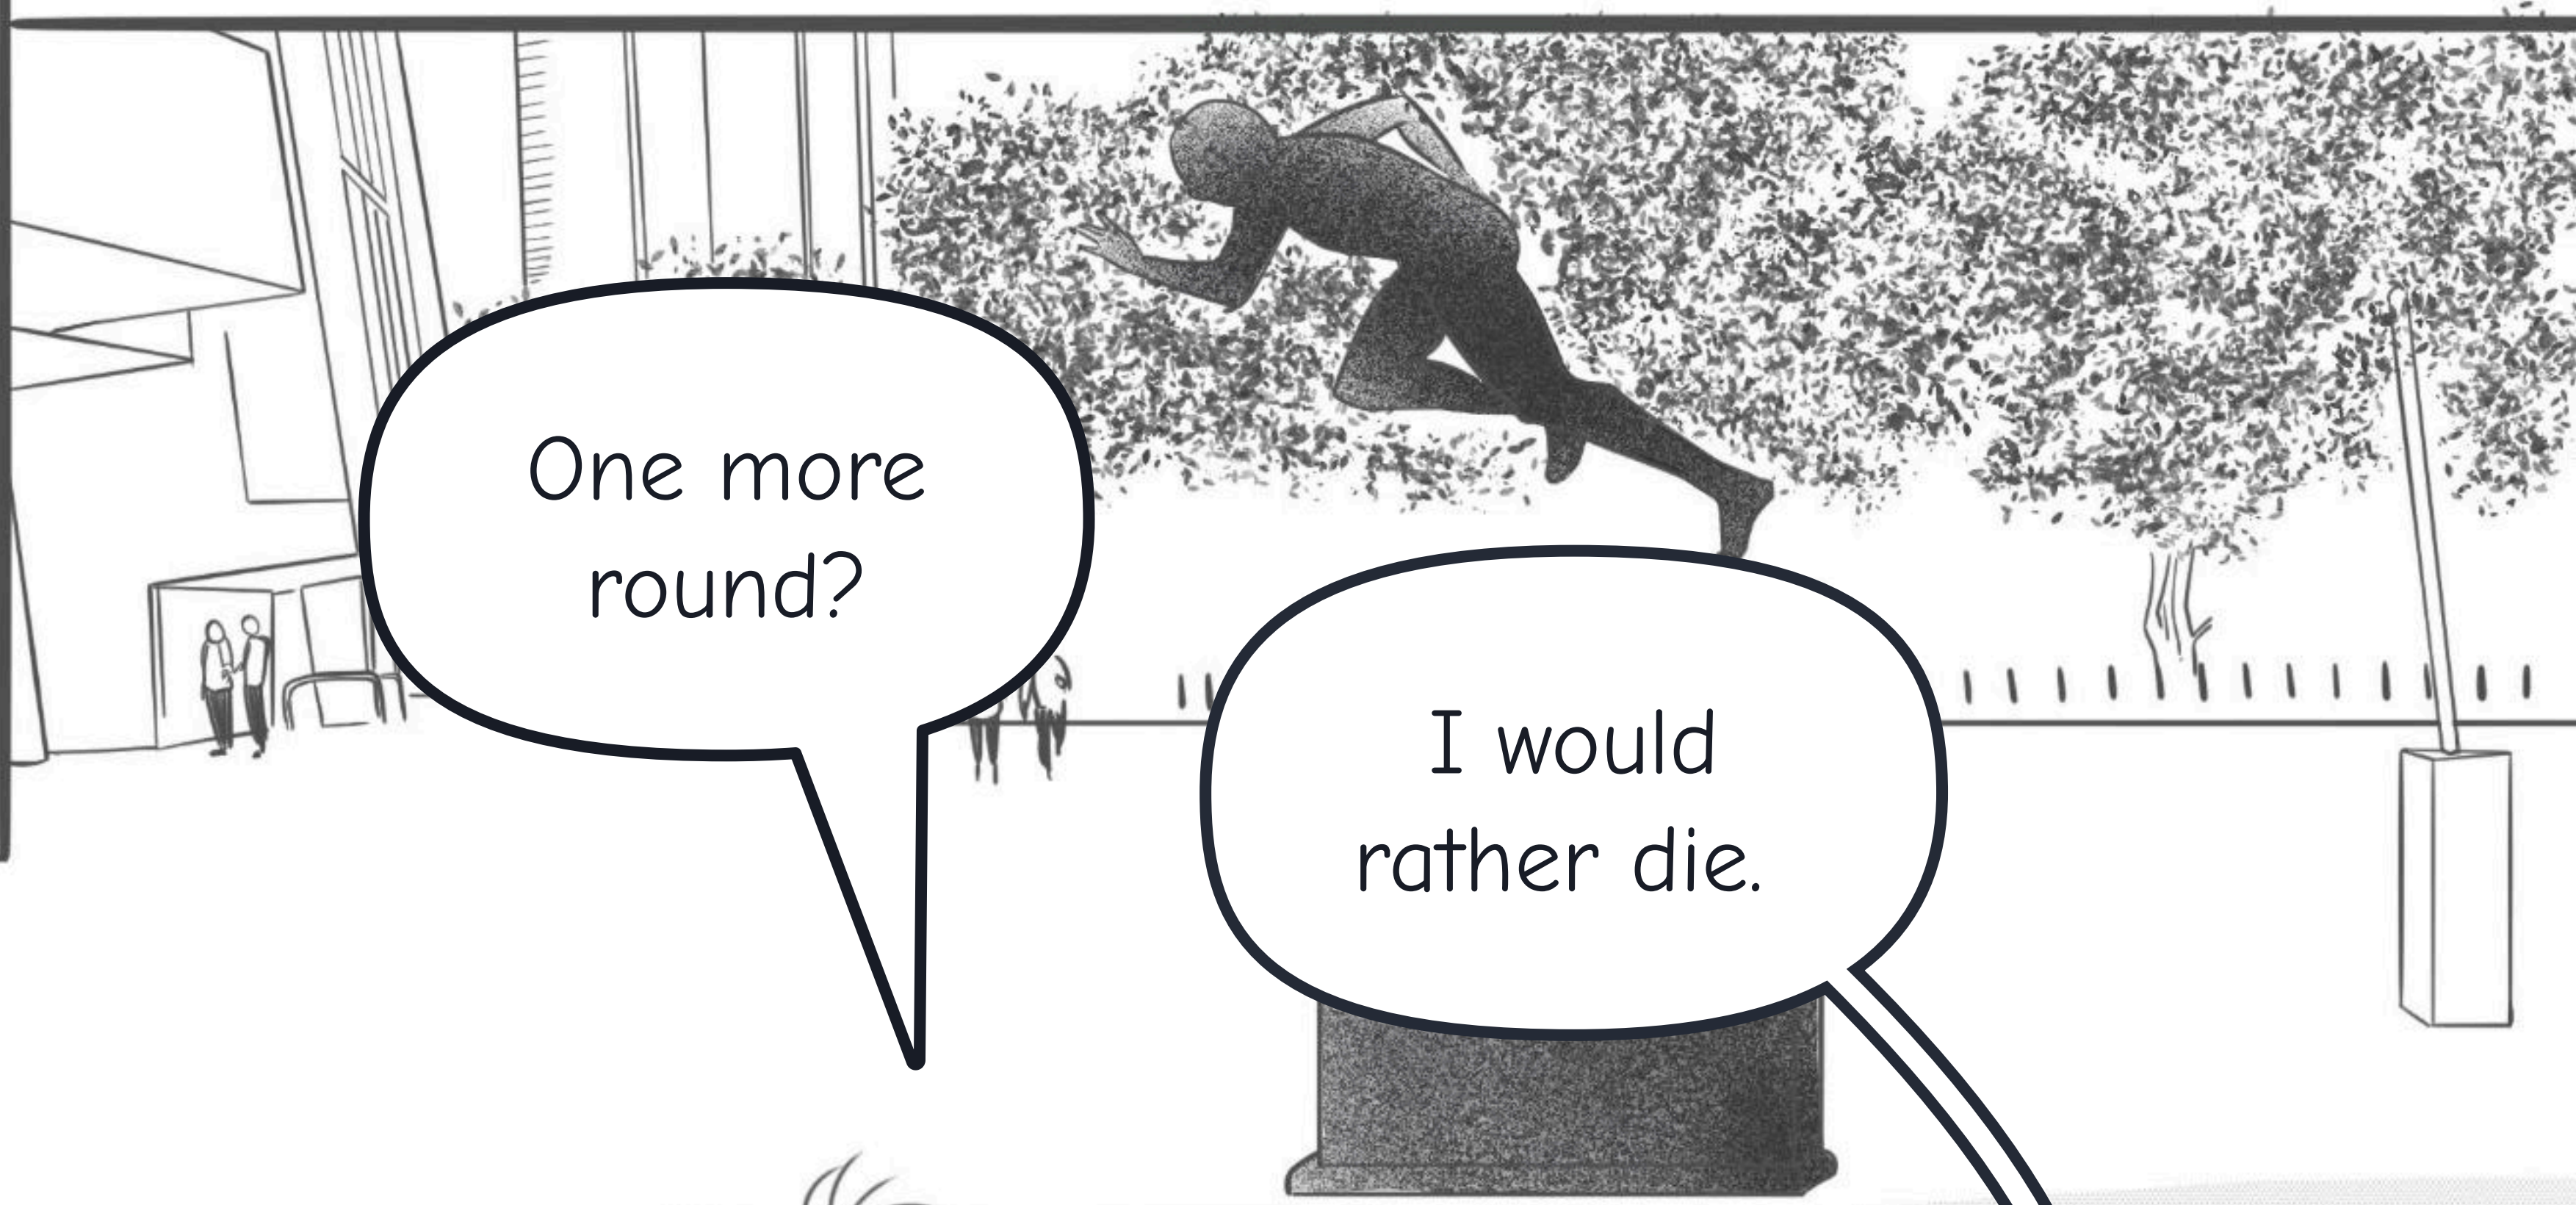

Puff

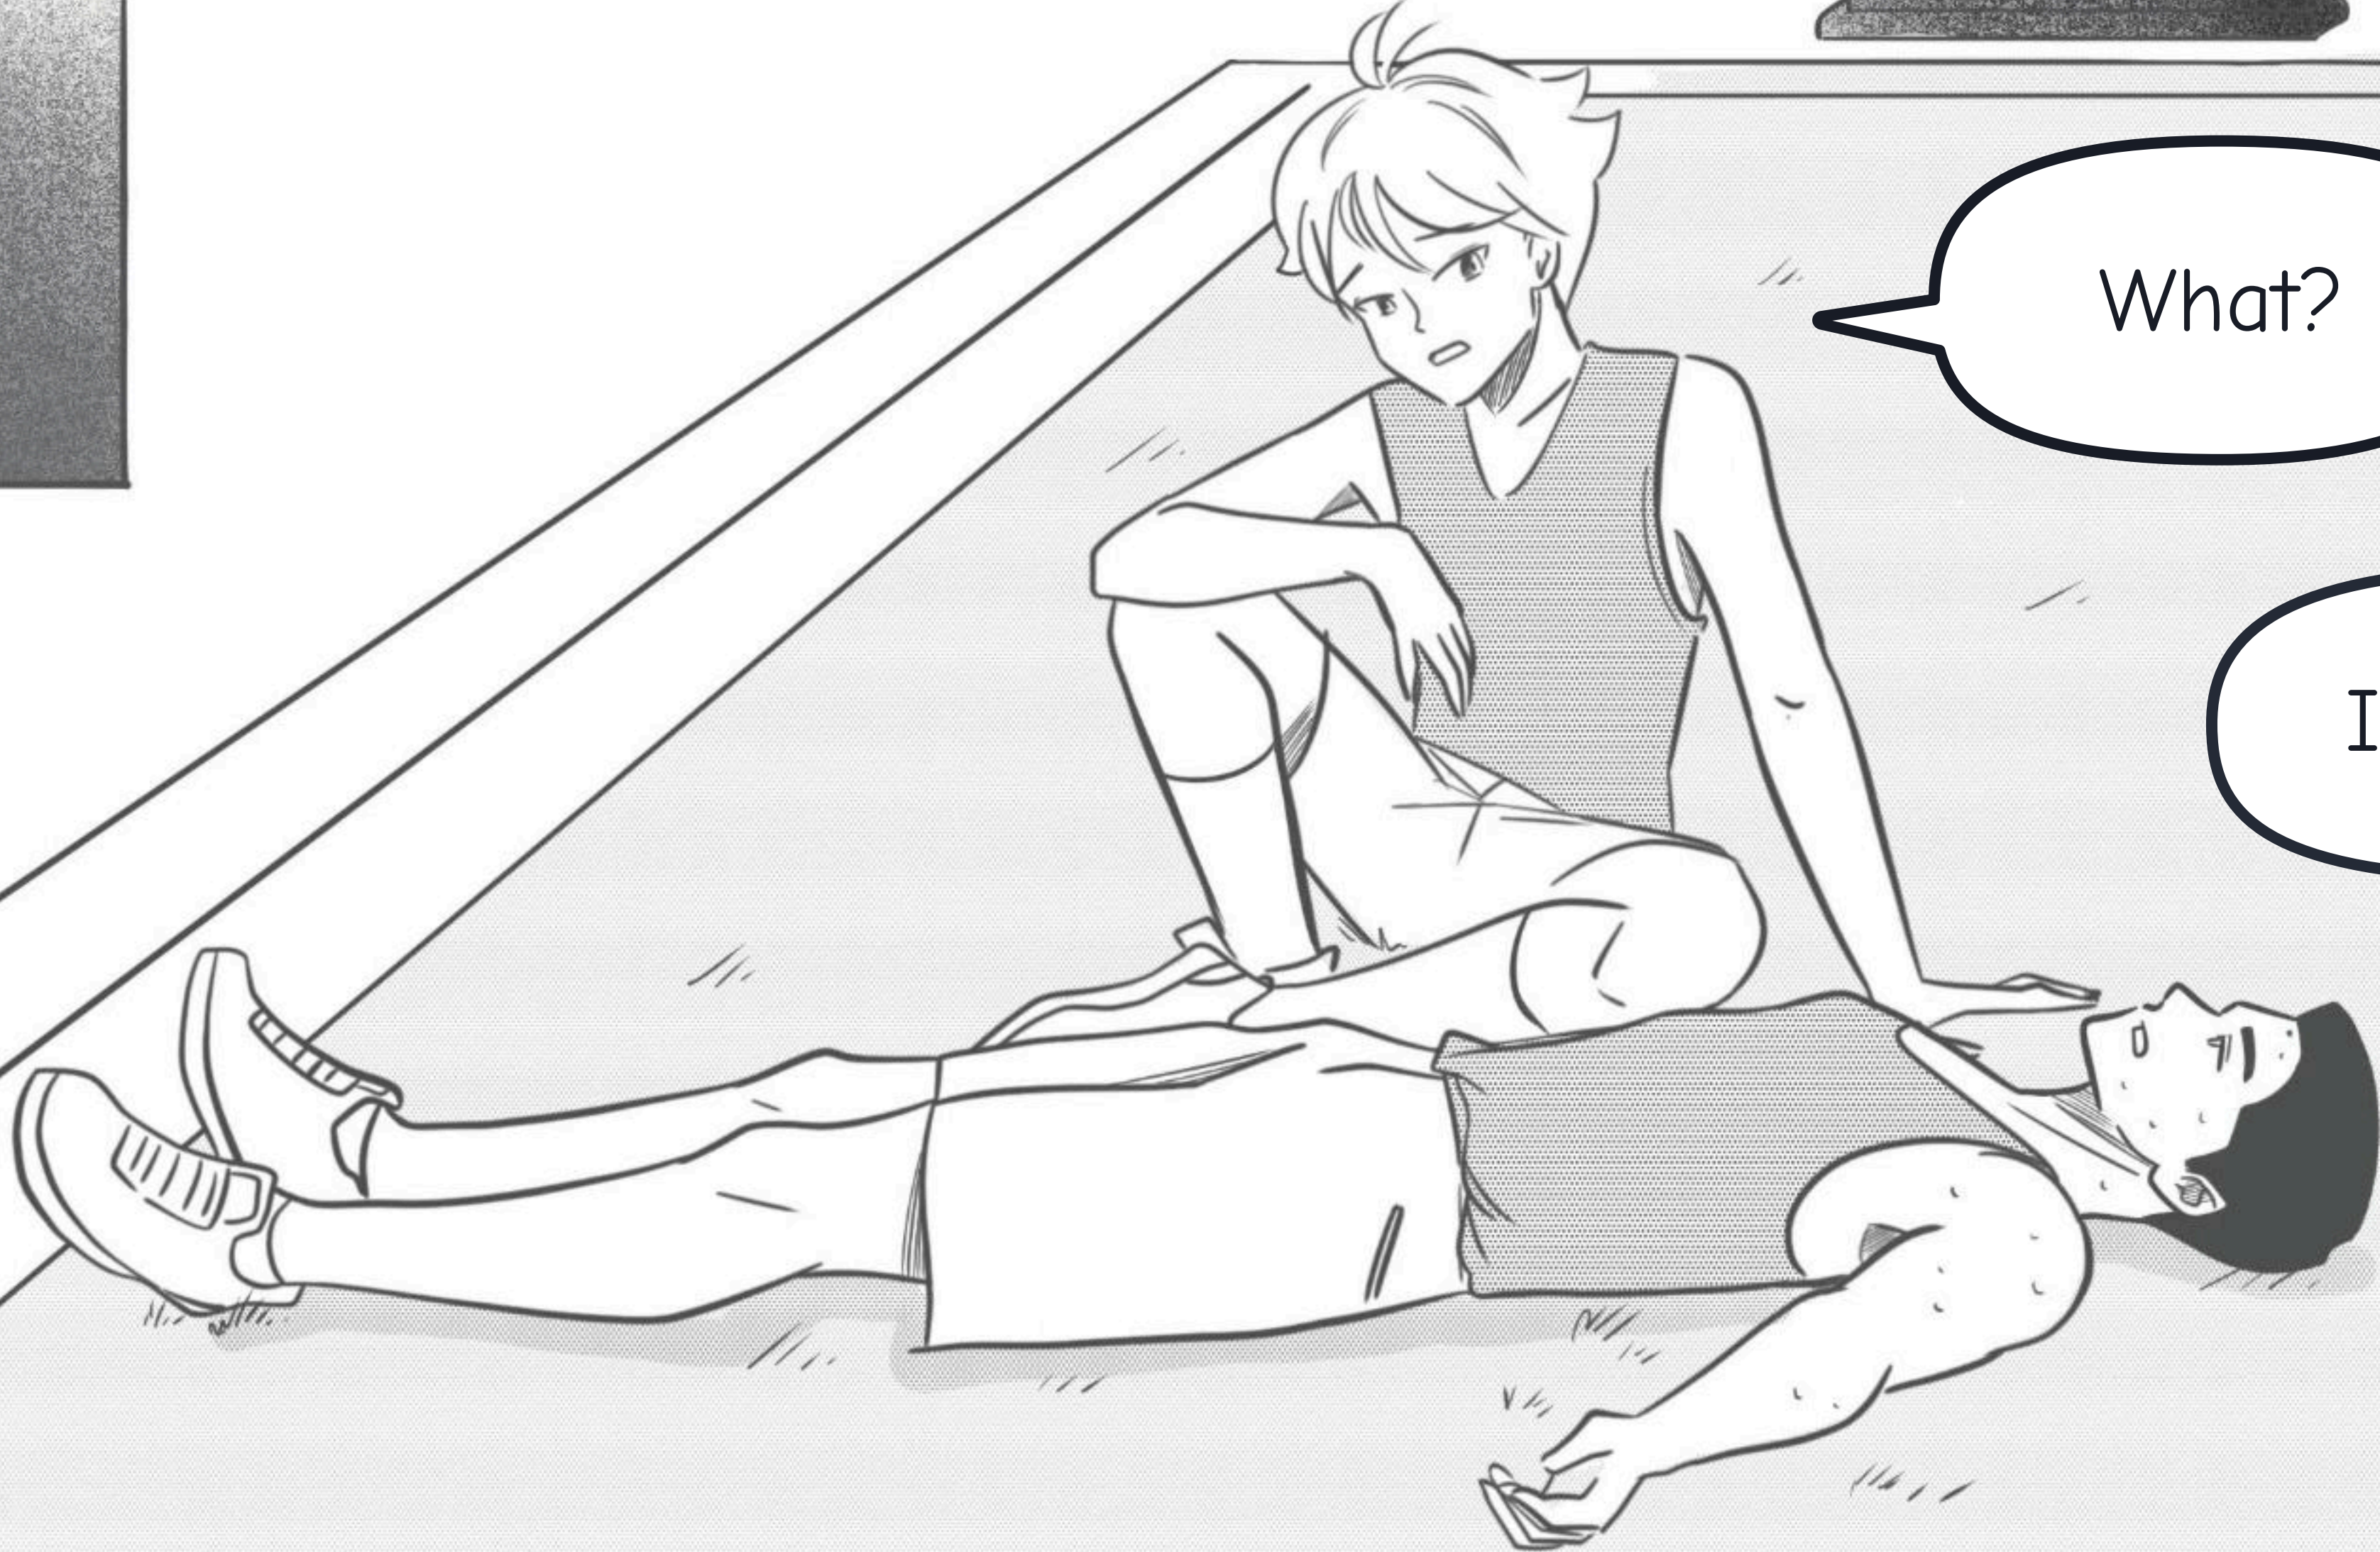

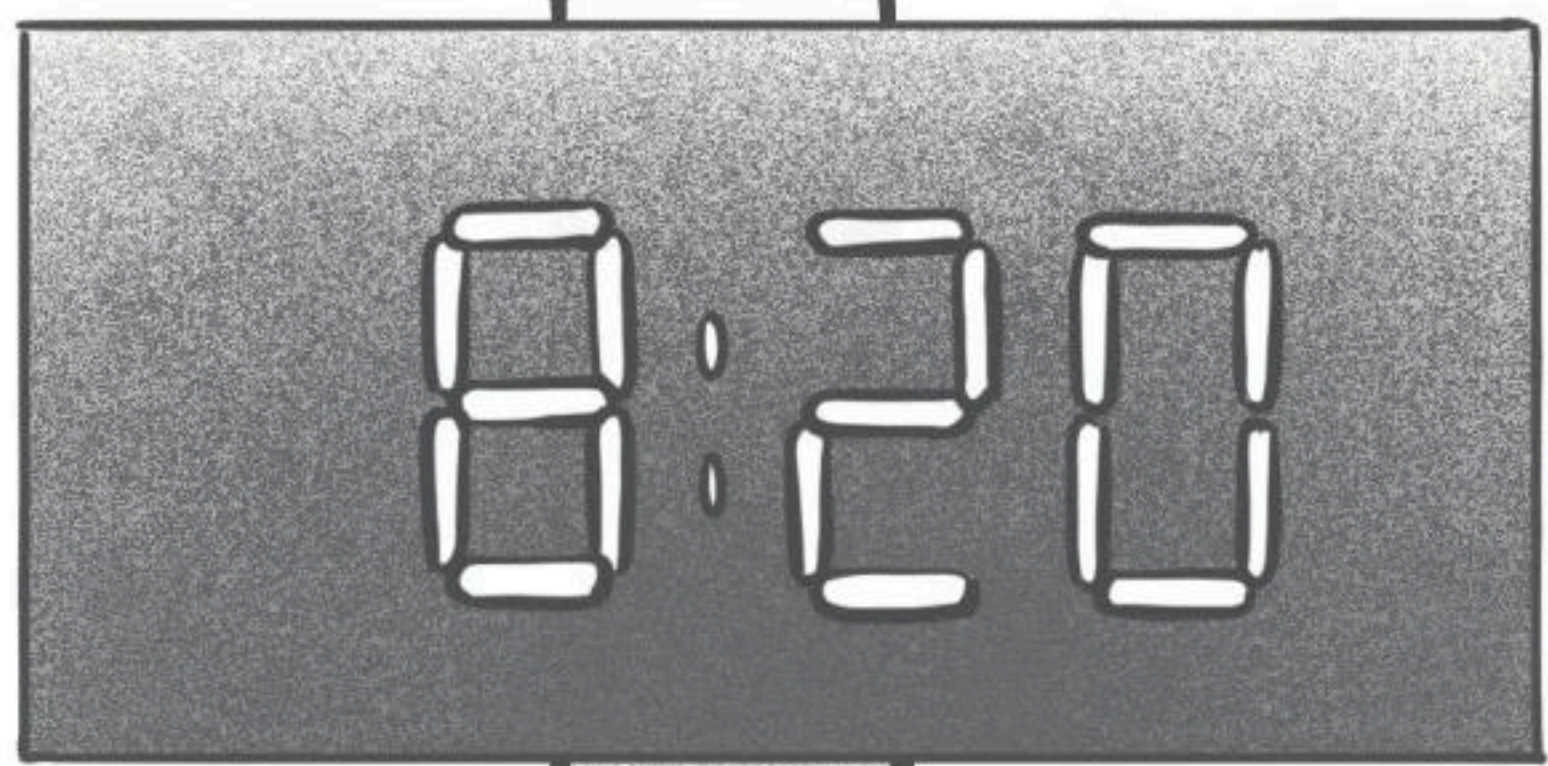

Wa - te - r...

Here you go.

One more round?

I would rather die.

What?

I mean it...

And thus ended one of the most promising careers in sports history.
